

I urge you to side with the State of Indiana and rule against the Consumer Bankers Association. The strict enforcement of the existing law has greatly improved the quality of my private/home time.